Introduction

Dr. Stephen R. Covey via Skype (Polycom)

Congratulations for keeping current in technology.

Making an Impact #1 reason people choose the fild of education is to make a difference in young people's lives. -Robert Marzano Leadership defined: "Leadershiup is communicating people's worth and potential so clearly that they are inspired to see it in themselves." Leadership is a choice, not a position Today's Focus 1. Leading Your Life 2. Being a leader for students. Leading Our own Lives 1. We need a strong skill-set 2. We need strong tool-set 3. We need strong mindsets Change ... Skill-sets and tool-sets ----> Incremental change Mindsets ----> Quantum leaps 7 Habits of Highly Effective People Each habit embodies a life changing mindset 1. Every significant breakthrough is a significant break with an old paradigm Readive Mindsets "I am a product of my environment and genes. Proactive mindsets 06.14 "They don't let their past hold their present hostage." Teachers that are proactive, don't let the state or the district effect their mindset on their teaching. Book: The Leader in Me. (He had to read the title of his own book to see what it said.) Taking Ownership ... Staff members shifting their mindset on the things they can control turned a gloomy culture into a positive experience. Begin with the End in Mind He has a personal motto: To live life in crescendo. He has a family mission statement on a band on his wrist. When identifying their "end in mind," many people confuse the means for the end. Technology is meant to bless, not just to impress.

12:00	Relationships are more important than things.
12:13	3. Put First Things First
12:33	Order things around our goals.

21:51	- "Treat a man as he is and you make him worse than he is. Treat a
22:01	man as he has the potential to become and you make him better than he is." -
22:18	Goethe
22:23	- Treating students as only test scores is the worst form of identy
22:34	theft.
26:49	Challenge: Reevaluate your skill sets and tool sets, but more importantly
